

TEAM LETHBRIDGE

Team Lethbridge is a group of community leaders interested in raising awareness of how the city of Lethbridge contributes to the province and how we can work with our government representatives to support long-term success for Alberta.

As individual organizations and as a group, we believe Lethbridge has a lot to offer the province, the country and the world. Our vision and commitment is to foster a community, province and nation that is not only ready to seize the opportunities of today but also the possibilities of tomorrow.

Visits to Edmonton in October 2008, November 2010, October 2012, and November 2015 were a success in terms of building relationships and understanding. Our next visit takes place November 7-9, 2017. For more information about the organizations representing Team Lethbridge, check out our Fall 2017 newsletter.

To contact any Team Lethbridge participating organization, follow the links below:

Allied Arts Council

The Allied Arts Council of Lethbridge (AAC) is a not-for-profit organization created to advance the arts by supporting artistic endeavors that enhance the quality of life for individuals, create a rich cultural environment and help to build a stronger community. AAC contributes to the economic diversification through the attraction and retention of creative and innovative people to the city, enriching Lethbridge by the presence of professional and community artists and arts organizations who are engaged in dance, literary arts, music, new media, theatre and visual arts.

See More

Alberta Health Services - South Zone

Alberta Health Services' South Zone serves Lethbridge, Medicine Hat, and the surrounding areas from Oyen to Milk River and Blairmore to Irvine. 290,000 people call the South Zone home, of which 6,800 people are employed by AHS. Of those, 2,500 work in Lethbridge including 1,600 at the Chinook Regional Hospital (CRH) a 279-bed hospital serving southwestern Alberta. About 440 physicians work in the South Zone. The South Zone leadership team is focused on many priorities. Key among them is access & capacity, seniors' health, and Primary Care and Family Care Centres.

See More

Canadian Home Builders Association, Lethbridge Region

Canadian Home Builders' Association – Lethbridge is a non-profit industry organization with over 150 members, including homebuilders, suppliers, trades, and service professionals – all of whom are committed to making the residential construction industry better. The residential construction industry is one of the largest employers in the area, providing employment for over 2,100 and representing over $300 million in investment capital for Lethbridge families. We build more than houses. We build communities.

See More

Chinook Country Tourist Association

Chinook Country Tourist Association (CCTA) markets southwest Alberta as the ideal tourism destination, fostering and promoting sustainable quality, innovative and successful tourism programs with key partners in order to grow the tourism industry in the region. We honor Alberta's communities by attracting a diverse range of visitors to experience Lethbridge and region and to bring economic and cultural vitality and impacts. Lethbridge is a destination for tourism which has a sizable impact on the local/regional economy.

See More

City of Lethbridge

As the hub of southern Alberta, Lethbridge is an attractive place to live, play, work, learn and do business. By continually striving to foster a local environment that's attractive to investment and business, we help provide a richer and broader array of career, social, recreational and cultural opportunities for our residents.

See More

Economic Development Lethbridge

Economic Development Lethbridge (EDL) strengthens and develops the Lethbridge economy by initiating proactive economic development strategies and by promoting Lethbridge as an excellent place to live, learn, visit, invest and do business. As a community based initiative with a twenty-five member Board of Directors representing every major economic driver in the area, Economic Development Lethbridge believes key partnerships, collaborative relationships and dynamic initiatives have been foundational to our city's success. From supporting industry to accessing expanded markets to helping entrepreneurs innovate and grow, EDL is proud to play a role in the city's and province's commitment to a vibrant, sustainable future.

See More

Holy Spirit Roman Catholic Separate Regional Division No. 4

Holy Spirit Roman Catholic Separate Regional Division No. 4 is a growing "rurban" division that serves the educational needs of over 4,600 students in grades 1-12 and 400 children in Early Childhood in thirteen schools. The Catholic Faith community of over 500 staff is dedicated to fostering the growth of responsible citizens, who live, celebrate and proclaim their faith. Holy Spirit is a high performing school division that believes in innovation and fully supports the Ministerial Order on Student Learning and Inspiring Education.

See More

Lethbridge Chamber of Commerce

The Lethbridge Chamber of Commerce has an important and powerful role as the voice of the business community, representing in excess of 750 business members in the Lethbridge area. As a community-based, volunteer business organization, we serve and represent the interests of our members by promoting and enhancing free enterprise for the benefit of the social and economic environment of the City of Lethbridge.

See More

Lethbridge Construction Association

Lethbridge Construction Association (LCA) membership consists of over 270 general contractors, trade contractors, suppliers and manufacturers in commercial, industrial and institutional construction in southern Alberta. Established in 1954, the LCA provides advocacy, education, resources and safety training to members, access to commercial tender opportunities, apprenticeship scholarships, community collaboration and special events. The LCA plays a critical role in liaising with the Alberta Construction Association (ACA) and the Canadian Construction Association (CCA), working for the improvement of the construction industry.

See More

Lethbridge College

Lethbridge College is the first publicly funded community college in Canada. It provides a range of educational opportunities that lead to career employment or to further education through foundational learning, upgrading, university transfer, apprenticeship programs, certificates, diplomas, applied degrees and baccalaureate degrees offered primarily in collaboration with degree-granting institutions. Lethbridge College is leading and transforming education in Alberta, focusing on academic transformation, collaborative partnerships, resource innovation and people development and developing capacity for leading change through engagement.

See More

Lethbridge and District Exhibition

Lethbridge & District Exhibition is a non-profit regional Exhibition that strives to provide to the people of the Lethbridge and southern Alberta an agricultural and community gathering place at which they can participate in events, conduct business, learn, and be entertained. Exhibition Park is an economic and tourism driver for Lethbridge. This vibrant community focused organization is governed by a volunteer Board of Directors representing the varied interests of the region.

See More

Lethbridge and District Association of REALTORS®

The Lethbridge and District Association of REALTORS® (LDAR) is a member service organization made up of nearly 300 REALTORS® consisting of Brokers, Associate Brokers and Associates, covering a 150 km radius. Our mission is to ensure the maximum level of service to its members through growth of membership, the promotion of the MLS® system, the enhancement of the highest standards of education, professional conduct and the delivery of accurate information to consumers and the public. We make a huge impact in our community: Nearly $52,000 of economic spin is generated with every real estate sale in our community.

See More

Lethbridge Family Services

Lethbridge Family Services (LFS) is southern Alberta's largest not-for-profit community social services agency. Governed by a volunteer Board of Directors, and managed by a professional staff, this highly-accredited organization serves over 5,500 clients annually. Through its over 325 staff members and 163 dedicated volunteers, LFS leads in innovative service excellence. Through advocacy, public education, prevention, intervention and community development, Lethbridge Family Services responds to the ever-changing community human service needs. LFS has faithfully served the citizens of southern Alberta since 1910, supporting and strengthening families, as the foundational base for healthy individuals and healthy societies.

See More

Lethbridge Lodging Association

Lethbridge Lodging Association (LLA) is the Voice of the Accommodations Industry in Lethbridge. LLA is a partnership of Destination Marketing Fund collecting accommodations businesses that attract and increase visitors to Lethbridge through the development of partnerships, events and activities that raise awareness of Lethbridge, grows hotel/motel occupancies and benefits our community. We envision that Lethbridge is the hub of tourism experiences in southern Alberta. LLA partners strategically with organizations such as the ENMAX Centre to create new and sustainable tourism opportunities in Lethbridge and market accommodations to increase additional overnight stays in Lethbridge.

See More

Lethbridge Police Service

The Lethbridge Police Service is committed to providing safe communities through partnerships, community participation and excellence in service delivery. Our 178 sworn-members, 57 non-sworn members and 44 volunteers are guided by the four pillars of policing – public safety, public trust, public confidence and professionalism. Collaboration between the police service, citizens and government is critical to addressing social problems and other root causes that lead people into contact with the criminal justice system.

See More

Lethbridge School District #51

Lethbridge School District No. 51 offers high quality learning experiences through a broad range of educational programs in nineteen schools and four institutional programs. A total of 9,300 students from early education programs to grade twelve are served by over 900 teaching and support staff. Students develop critical thinking skills, character and citizenship – traits that will ensure that our community is vibrant, safe and secure, today and in the future.

See More

Lethbridge Senior Citizens Organization

Lethbridge Senior Citizens Organization (LSCO) strives to encourage an active, healthy community that is learning, growing and making a difference. The organization fosters a healthy approach by providing over 100 wellness activities, programs and supports for seniors, ensuring the latest and best health and wellness trends are incorporated. Maintaining a modern, efficient building and ensuring quality fitness and wellness facilities for LSCO's 2,100+ members are a priority in building for tomorrow. A strong seniors community is built through community involvement, including proactively addressing vital issues such as elder abuse, seniors housing opportunities, fair taxation, adequate health services and affordable, accessible in-home and community supports.

See More

Lethbridge Sport Council

Lethbridge Sport Council (LSC) provides leadership for the enhancement and development of sports, sport organizations, and sport facilities in Lethbridge, ensuring inclusivity and quality sport experiences for all. In addition to growing sport tourism to benefit Lethbridge and southern Alberta, LSC assists sport organizations and individuals by linking them to, and providing them with, sport and sport business related education, support services and linkages to the community.

See More

University of Lethbridge

The University of Lethbridge (U of L) is a student-centered university well known for its unparalleled student experience in a research-enriched environment. One of Alberta's four comprehensive academic and research institutions, the U of L's reputation is recognized internationally. Last year it achieved a top-three national ranking Maclean's and Research Infosource. Along with its exceptional undergraduate programming, the U of L offers graduate programming in all of its faculties. The U of L is internationally recognized for its comprehensive research strengths in water, neuroscience and demography and economy and is growing in the areas of health, epigenetics and imaging.

See More